If you have Medicare medical insurance premiums deducted from your check, we have corrected the amount of your Medicare premium. As the law requires, we rounded your new payment down to the next lower dollar.

We had to correct your benefit because Congress ended the Catastrophic Health Insurance part of Medicare effective January 1990. But the change in the law came too late for us to correct your Medicare premium deduction on time.

The new basic premium for 1990—the amount most people pay—was lowered to $28.60 a month. We have made all corrections and refunds and you
